

Hi There!

The beginning of a fresh “New” year. Doesn’t that sound inspiring?!?!?

Even though Christmas is over, I don’t mind having SnowMen and SnowWomen in my home till the end of January.
Their coldness brings warmth to my heart. ☺

Here’s a snowmen pattern to make pillow coverings, a small table centrepiece, a lap quilt or simply finishing off the 4 corners on a king sized quilt.

Recently, one of our quilty friends brought in her McCall’s Quick Quilt magazine – Aug/Sep 2013 issue. Gilbert had quilted her quilt and she had submitted a picture of her quilt and they put it in their issue! How cool is that, eh? We were ESTATIC to see this!!!

If any of your quilts appear in a magazine.... Please share! We like to be tickled pink, too! ☺

Here’s a lovely quilt pattern that can be done in scrappy colors or, with a myriad of “controlled” colors... you decide.
Personally, I’d love to see it in whites, reds and some black.

Jenny Doan, from Missouri Quilt Company, shows us how to make a Dresden Flower Wall Hanging....
Lots of cool tricks that can be used on other quilty projects:

Just finished the center of your quilt and you'd like to try a different border?
How about one of these? No, I don't have measurements... sorry.

I've created the Marco Polo Quilt Guild "Calendar of Events" for 2015.
 Not much on there, yet, but stay tuned as I hear about quilts shows and other quilty stuff:

That's about it, for now....

Gilbert and I would like to wish you all a Happy New Year!

Rosa and Gilbert
