As some of you know, I will be finished my full-time job at the end of September. And, as I keep reminding myself, "One door shuts and another door opens."

Soooo, I will be offering "Kitchen Classes"!

I'm still working on the final details but I will teach an "all day" class at Town and County – max. 8 per class. If more people are interested, there might be more classes there. Like most things, "Supply and Demand" is the name of the game.

I also hope to have "afternoon" classes in our kitchen – max. 4 per class.

The difference between an all day class or just an afternoon class?

An all day class – we start from the beginning. I hope to offer tips, tricks and advice.

An afternoon class – you'll have homework or prep work done, beforehand.

I hope to offer a different class, every month.

Stay tuned. s
